

2003 Manager-of-the-Year

Ali Hauser

Greater Latrobe Senior High School
Latrobe, Pennsylvania

Editor's Note: Over the years this award has evolved. In the past WUSA has honored wrestling managers in addition to what was commonly called "mat maids", a group of young ladies who helped score and run duals and tournaments. Although "mat maids" still exist in some schools, most of the nominations we receive are for individuals who take care of a variety of duties, from statistics, uniform care, and publicity to managing tournaments and dual meets. In many cases they know wrestling well enough to act as assistant coaches. Their leaving after four years can be as big a loss to the program as is the graduation of a top wrestler. - Cal

Young ladies like ALI HAUSER always leave a huge gap when they graduate. Our 2003 Manager-of-the-Year will certainly be missed at Greater Latrobe Senior High School.

Ali served as team athletic trainer and statistician for both the high school and middle school programs for six years. She is a tireless worker who has not missed a single practice or competition in those six years. The Greater Latrobe program spans five months, and Ali has always done above and beyond what was needed for both programs. She was even the recipient of one of the wrestling team's top awards, the Claw Award.

Hauser, a 2.59 GPA student who has involved herself in other such activities as Interact Club (community service), Letterman's Club, and Spanish Club, is a young lady who has represented her school, her family, and the wrestling team in an exemplary manner. According to Head Coach, Marc Billett, who nominated her, "Ali's desire to set goals and achieve them through a tremendous work ethic is a quality that sets her apart from so many others. She is a remarkable individual with an unparalleled drive to succeed."

WUSA congratulates Ali Hauser for a job well done in support of the great sport of wrestling!!
