

...On Life is too short to focus on the negative

By Dr. Bill Welker

In this Wrestling USA Magazine issue I would like to comment on two phrases I have heard in recent months on the radio and in conversations. I totally disagree with both statements. "I tried so hard to go so far, but in the end it does- n't really matter."

These are lyrics from a pop music group. Quite inspirational for our youth-- don't you think?

I am sick and tired of negative inuendos. Life is too short to focus on the negative. We are surrounded by a world of wonders and challenges; a sampling of God's many gifts to us mortals.

We must teach our kids that all of them have contributions to offer society -- no matter what our socio-economic status
