The only advice Jim Husk gave his national Dream Team was to have fun. They had a blast.

The USA Dream Team completely dominated an Iowa Elite Team, 60-0, in the seventh annual Wrestling USA/Cliff Keen Dream Team Classic prep all-star wrestling meet before more than 1,000 fans Saturday night at Prairie High School.

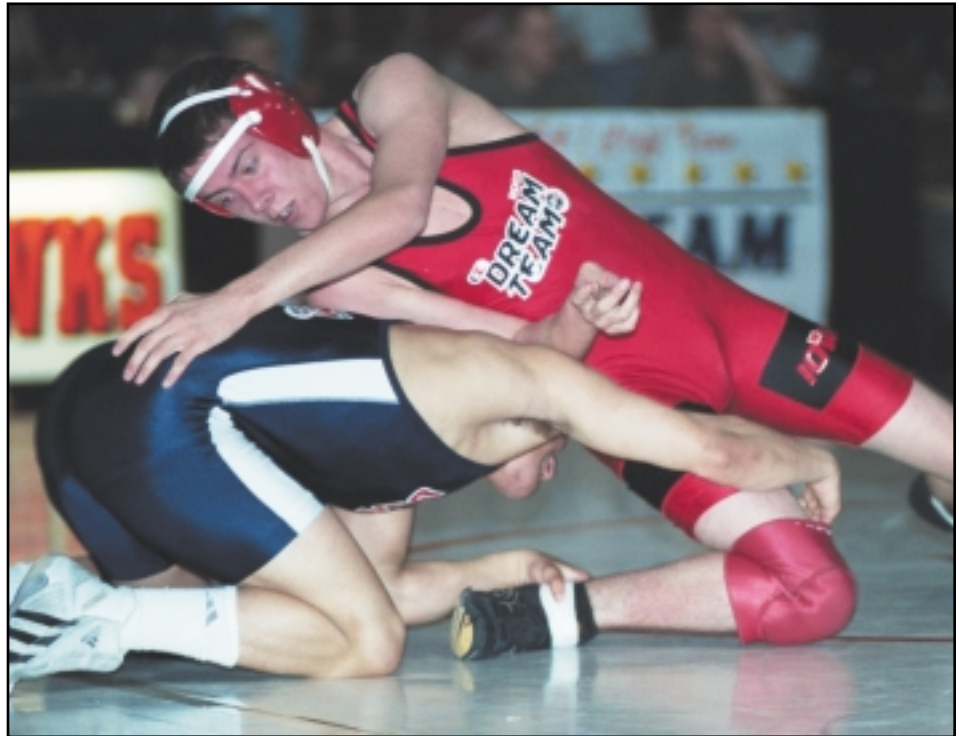

The Dream Team won four of the 14 bouts by pin, four others by major decision and one by technical fall. The Iowa team managed just four take-downs and was outscored, 168-54, in match points.

Husk, a high school coach for 39 years from Miami, Fla., said he always dreamed of coaching a team like this.

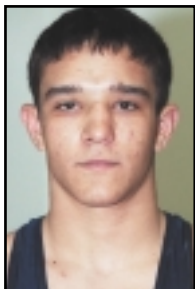

"I've never had a team that is literally a dream team," he said. "This is a heck of a group of kids."

It would have been hard to find an argument last night.

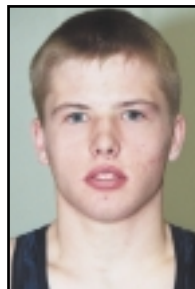

Daniel Ruiz of The Woodlands, Texas, started things off with a second-period pin at 103 and Brandon Hardy of Portsmouth, Va., at 125, Jake Herbert of Wexford, Pa., at 171 and Grant Miller of Rockton, Ill., at heavyweight also scored falls.

Roger Kish of Lapreer, Mich., at 189 scored a technical fall and Mark McKnight of McDonald, Pa., (119 pounds), Daniel Frishkorn of Chesapeake, Va., (130), Ryan Lang of Lakewood, Ohio (135) and Jake Donar of Cuba City, Wis., (145) all scored major decisions.

"We just kept our heads and wrestled strong," said McKnight, who scored five takedowns in a 15-4 wing over Derek Fuglsang of Maquoketa.

Lang won the battle of four-time state champions, taking Hudson's C.J.

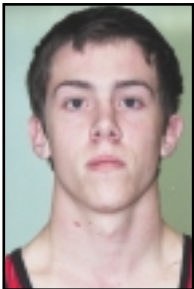

Ettelson down twice and using five nearfall points in a 12-4 win. Lang won four Ohio state titles for St. Edward High School and has a career record of 153-17. Ettelson, who is headed for Northern Iowa after a 161-3 prep career, scored the Iowa team's first takedown with less than a minute left in the match.

Iowa recruit Mark Perry of Stillwater, Okla., was one of the few Dream Team members who was upset after the dual. He wasn't happy with his 11-4 victory over Iowa City West's Omar Maktabi. Perry started things off with a five-point move and led 10-1 midway through the second period, but Maktabi hung tough and scored a takedown in the third period.

"I'm never satisfied unless I pin the guy or tech (fall) him," Perry said.

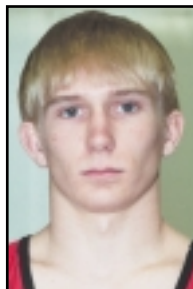

Blake Gillis of Spencer gave the Dream Team its biggest scare, losing to Senior National champion and Minnesota recruit

"The Iowa kids were tough," Husk said.

The Iowa team was a bit depleted because the 26th annual North-South All-Star Dual held the night before in Charles City.
