Bulldogs Down Vikings, Fall to Bobcats at Ohio Duals

Athens, Ohio – The Citadel wrestling team split their action on Friday as they fell to Ohio, 31-3, and defeated Cleveland State, 24-13, at the Ohio University duals.

The morning started well against the host Bobcats, as freshman Giazzai Segarra defeated Kyle Ciccarello in the 125-pound weight class, 7-4, to give the Bulldogs a 3-0 team lead. The Bobcats then took over however, as they would win the remaining nine matches to trump The Citadel, 32-3. Ohio would get wins via technical fall and three major decisions to thwart the Bulldogs. Freshman Turtogtokh Luvsandorj dropped a tough match as he was outdueled, 3-1, in overtime by Ohio's Clay Tucker. The Bobcats' Kevin Christensen followed that with another tough match, defeating Derek Sickel of The Citadel, 5-2. Ohio has three wrestlers currently ranked in the Top 30 of WrestlingReport.com

The latter dual went much better for the Bulldogs as they would take down Cleveland State by the score of 24-13. Segarra would earn his second victory of the day to lead things off by taking down Cleveland State's Zachary Zupanic, 9-5, at the 125-pound weight class. Freshman Dustin Paridon then followed in his first dual meet start of his career by taking down Vikings grappler Zech Huff, 7-5, at 133, to give The Citadel a 6-0 lead. Nick LaFevre and Pierre Frazile would follow suit for the Bulldogs taking down their opponents by the scores of 4-2 and 5-2, in the 141 and 149-pound weight classes respectively. Luvsandorj and Derek Sickel would suffer tough one point losses each in their matches at 157 and 165 to cut The Citadel lead to 12-6. However J.C. Oddo at 174 and Odie Delaney at 197 would pin their opposition to seal the win for the Bulldogs and give them their first dual action win of the season.
