Wrestling Crushes Limestone and Anderson

Anderson, S.C. – The Citadel grapplers had no problem at the Anderson Duals on Thursday evening as they ran past Limestone College, 29-3 and dominated Anderson University, 33-2.

In the opening dual against Limestone (12-6), the Bulldogs won nine matches en route to a 28-3 victory over the Saints. Turtogtokh Luvsandorj registered a major decision at 157 as he took down Limestone's Mikel Bush, 15-6. A 2-1 decision at 141 gave Nick LaFevre a win over the Saints' Jeremy Park, who is currently ranked fifth in the Division II rankings at his weight class. Kelby Smith also earned a major decision as he took down Mike Walsh, 12-4. Richard Alarcon, Jordan Dix, Derek Royster, Pierre Frazile, Justin Sparrow and Odie Delaney all scored wins for the Bulldogs as well.

The Bulldogs (6-5) won their first eight matches and nine total in their second dual of the evening, this time against the host Trojans (5-10). The Citadel started and ended the dual with pins as freshman Giazzi Segarra took out AU's Cory Monteforte in 4:33 at 125, while Odie Delaney scored his 15th pin of the season when he downed LaBryant Cunningham at the 5:28 mark. Jordan Dix raced past the Trojans' Dequan Warner by major decision, 14-0, at 133. Nick LaFevre, Derek Royster, Turtogtokh Luvsandorj, Pierre Frazile, Justin Sparrow and Kelby Smith also all earned their second victories of the day.
