Trotman Named SoCon Wrestler of the Week for the Second Time

SPARTANBURG, S.C. - Appalachian State University wrestler Austin Trotman (Winston-Salem, N.C./Mount Tabor) was named Southern Conference Wrestler of the Week for all matches from February 3-9, the conference office announced Thursday.

It is the second time this season and the third time in Trotman's career he has received the honor.

The Winston-Salem native went 3-0 on the week and was 2-0 in SoCon action. He defeated Chattanooga's Jason McCroskey 9-4 in his first match Saturday and beat Northern Iowa's Scott Hazen 11-4 in his second match of the day.

On Tuesday night, he pinned Davidson's Ike Crews in the first period to record his third pin of the year.

Since moving to 184 pounds, Trotman has gone 11-1 and recorded three pins. For the season, he is 19-4, with the three pins and six major decisions.

Trotman and the Mountaineers finish their SoCon slate on Sunday, Feb. 14 when they host VMI at 2 p.m.
