Turtogtokh Luvsandorj Named SoCon Wrestler of the Week

Spartanburg, S.C. – The Southern Conference announced Wednesday that The Citadel's Turtogtokh Luvsandorj has been named Wrestler of the Week for competition from February 17-23.

Luvsandorj defeated nationally 16th-ranked Thomas Scotton of North Carolina, 3-0, on Sunday. The 157-pounder from Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia has posted a 13-1 record since January 9. He is 10-0 in dual action during that span and has four pins in the month of February. He is now 24-10 overall on the year with six falls and two major decisions and is 11-4 in dual action. He is 4-1 in the SoCon.

The freshman won the freshman and sophomore tournament at the Michigan State Open in November and took third place at the NC State Open in November and at the All-Academy Championships at Navy earlier this month.

Luvsandorj is the second Bulldog to win this award this season as Odie Delaney was named SoCon Wrestler of the Week on December 9.

The Bulldogs return to action on March 5 as they compete in the SoCon Championships at Davidson, N.C. A live blog will be available for wrestling updates on Citadel grapplers all day. For more information on Bulldog Wrestling, visit the official website at CitadelSports.com.
