Nick LaFevre and Turtogtokh Luvsandorj Named to SoCon All-Freshman Team

Spartanburg, S.C. – The Southern Conference announced Tuesday that Bulldog wrestlers Nick LaFevre and Turtogtokh Luvsandorj have been named to the inaugural All-Freshman Team.

Luvsandorj sports a 24-10 overall record, the second most wins on the team. He went 4-1 in the SoCon and 11-4 in dual action to go along with six pins and two major decisions on the season. The Mongolian has posted a 13-1 record since January 9. He is 10-0 in dual action during that span and has four pins in the month of February. He is coming off of a 3-0 win over a nationally ranked opponent in No. 16 Thomas Scotton of North Carolina.

LaFevre went 17-11 in the regular season in his first year with the Bulldogs. He went 2-2 in the SoCon and 7-5 in dual action to go along with a major decision and two pins. The New Jersey native took fourth place at the All-Academy Championships at Navy in February and scored conference wins over Chattanooga and VMI.

Chattanooga dominated the All-Conference Team awards as they collected five of the ten sports in addition to place four grapplers on the All-Freshman Team. The five-time defending conference champions went undefeated in league play in 2009-2010.
