SENIOR DAY

NO. 13

MISSOURI (14-8, 0-3 BIG 12)

VS.

NO. 17

IOWA STATE (9-8, 0-2 BIG 12)

Feb. 13, 2011 :: 1 p.m. CT :: Hearn Center :: Columbia, Mo.

Missouri closes out both their 2010-11 home schedule and the regular season with one last Big 12 contest, as they host the No. 17 Iowa State Cyclones on Sunday, Feb. 13 at 1 p.m. CT in the Hearn Center. The Tigers, ranked No. 13 in the country, are 14-8 on the year and are looking for their first dual win against a Big 12 foe this season.

The contest will be televised on tape delay by the Missouri Sports Network. Date and times of airing will be released as soon as they are known. Beau Baehman will handle the play-by-play, while former Tiger All-American Nick Marable will be the color commentator.

Prior to the match, Missouri will honor their three seniors, Luke Cherep, Tyler Perry and Todd Schavrien, as we celebrate their years of dedication to the Tiger wrestling program.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children. Children under two get free admission.

SCOUTING IOWA STATE

The Iowa State Cyclones come into this competition ranked No. 17 in the latest NWCA Division I Coaches Poll. Winners of their last three, the Cyclones are 9-8 overall and 0-2 in the Big 12. The Cyclones started the year with a 6-2 record before losing their next six contests, all coming against top-10 competition. Since then, they've knocked off Binghamton, Northern Iowa and Arizona State in the last two weeks.

Iowa State is led by 174 pounder Jon Reader, the top-ranked grappler in his class with a 30-0 record this season. Reader won tournament titles at the Hokie Open, the Harold Nichols Open and at the Midlands Championships. Other ranked Cyclones include 141 pounder Chris Drouin, who is 12-6 on the season and ranked 15th in the country. Andrew Sorenson ranks as high as No. 8 at 165 and is 15-5 on the year, while 197 pounder Jerome Ward sits as high as 10th in the country with a 14-5 record.

Iowa State owns a 44-4 edge all-time over the Tigers. Three of Missouri's four wins over the Cyclones have come with Brian Smith as head coach of the Tigers, with the

Prior to the dual between Missouri and Iowa State, the Tigers will honor the team's three seniors for their commitment and dedication to the program over the years. Mizzou will recognize Luke Cherep, Tyler Perry and Todd Schavrien.

A five-year member of the Missouri wrestling team, Luke Cherep has been a solid competitor for the Tigers at 133 and 141 pounds during his tenure at Mizzou, posting a career record of 35-18. He has a pair of runner-up finishes at tournaments this season, placing second at the Roger Denker Open and the MVC Open. This year, Cherep has made a living off bonus point victories, as he's recorded a major decision or better in eight of his 10 wins, with his five pins tying him for fourth-most on the squad.

After fighting through injury for much of his career, Tyler Perry wraps up his Tiger career with a solid senior campaign. The heavyweight has picked up 12 wins this season, with five of those coming by fall. Of those five pins, his 20 second pin of Purdue's Roger Vukobratovich at the 2010 Midlands Championships is the fastest pin amongst all Tiger grapplers this season. At this year's Midlands, Perry won four of his six matches, with two of those coming against top-20 ranked competition.

Coming to Mizzou after two years at Arizona State, Todd Schavrien has been a staple in the Tiger lineup since 2008. After spending his first season at Mizzou at 133 pounds, Schavrien has spent his each of the last two years wrestling at 141. A two-time NCAA qualifier, Schavrien has a career record of 79-41, giving him the most wins amongst active Tigers. This year, he's won 23 of his 29 matches, is 18-4 in duals, and ranks as high as 12th in the country. He leads the team with 76 dual points and has scored bonus points in 17 of his 23 wins.

WHAT'S NEXT

Missouri will have a few weeks off from competition before the 2011 Big 12 Championships on March 5 in Ames, Iowa.

EARLY POINTS HELPING TIGERS

Much of the Tigers' success this season has been because of the big wins they've had right off the bat in their dual meets. More specifically, the success they've had at 125, 133 and 141 pounds. The Tigers have scored 480 total team points in duals this season, and 193 of those have come from the first three weight classes, making up over 40% of the team's total. Mizzou has accumulated 50 points at 133 pounds, 67 points at 125 and 76 points at 141. The only other class to pick up more than 50 points is heavyweight, which has accumulated 59 points so far this season. 125 pounds has picked up bonus points in four of their 19 wins, while 133 has scored bonus point wins in six of their 22 matches. 141 pounds leads the way, picking up bonus points in 12 of their 18 victories on the season. Missouri has started every dual but one at 125 pounds this year.

SECOND HALF SHIFT

After struggling through much of the year at 197-pounds, the re-addition of Brent Haynes into that class have helped turn the tide a bit for the Tigers. After 10 duals this season, Missouri only had recorded 13 points at 197. Since Haynes re-joined the lineup, Mizzou has picked up 26 points at 197 pounds during the team's last 12 duals.

2011 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS SOLD OUT

The Division I Wrestling Committee, Rider University and the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference have announced that tickets for the 2011 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships are sold out. The three-day event, taking place March 17-19 at the Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia, Pa., officially sold out of all-session tickets, and because of this no single session tickets will be available for the championships.

Tickets for the 2012 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis, Mo., go on sale Thursday, March 17. To purchase tickets or for more information on the wrestling championships, log on to NCAA.com/wrestling.

FIVE WIN TITLES AT MVC OPEN

Five Missouri grapplers claimed titles in their respective weight class this past Saturday at the Missouri Valley Open, with eight others placing in the top six.

Kellen Bounous (149), Drake Houdashelt (157), James Houchins (174), Johnny Eblen (184) and Devin Mellon (HWT) all finished in first place. For Houdashelt, it was his third open championship of the season for the freshman, while Bounous and Mellon claimed their second of the year. Houchins and Eblen all finished in first place for the first time this season.

Also placing for the Tigers were Luke Cherep (second, 141 pounds), Simon Kitzis (fourth, 141 pounds), Nicholas Hucke (second, 149 pounds), Jordan Gagliano (third, 165 pounds), Todd Porter (second, 174 pounds), Dustin Williams (fourth, 184 pounds), Ryan Robinson (third, 197 pounds) and Jake Gloré (fifth, HWT).

TIGERS FALL TO NO. 10 SOONERS, 18-12

The No. 12 Missouri Tigers dropped their regular season road finale on Saturday afternoon, losing to the No. 10 Oklahoma Sooners by a final of 18-12. Missouri is now 14-8 on the year.

The Tigers dropped some tough contests on the afternoon, losing three matches by two points or less, with two of those coming by the slimmest of margins. Oklahoma won five of the first six matches to pace their victory.

TIGERS TOPPLED BY NO. 5 OSU

The No. 12 Missouri wrestling team (12-7, 0-2 Big 12) couldn't overcome an early deficit against No. 5 Oklahoma State (11-2-1, 2-0 Big 12), as the Tigers dropped their second straight match, losing 28-6 to the Cowboys on Friday night.

The Cowboys won eight of the 10 matches, with three of those coming by bonus points. Missouri's only wins came by Dom Bradley at heavyweight and Zach Toal at 165.

NO. 7 TIGERS FALL TO HUSKERS, 17-16

The No. 7 Tigers saw their five-match winning streak come to an end on Sunday, as the No. 16 Nebraska Cornhuskers upended Mizzou by a 17-16 final in their Big 12 Conference opener. Missouri is now 14-6 on the year and 0-1 in league competition. Mizzou jumped out to a 10-3 lead after four matches, but the Huskers would go on to win four the next five to take control of the dual.

SEVEN TIGERS TAKE TITLES AT OPEN

Thirteen Tiger wrestlers competed in the Roger Denker Open at the University of Central Missouri on Saturday, with 12 coming back having placed in the event.

Cody Farinella (141), Kellen Bounous (149), Drake Houdashelt (157), Jordan Gagliano (165), Dustin Williams (184), Ryan Robinson (197) and Jake Gloré (HWT) completed perfect days to take home the title in their respective weight classes. Luke Cherep (141), Ty Prazma (165) and Devin Mellon (HWT) each earned runner-up finishes, while Simon Kitzis (141) and Johnny Eblen (184) finished sixth.

NO. 7 MIZZOU SWEEPS PAIR OF DUALS

The No. 7 Tiger wrestling team improved to 14-5 on the dual season, closing out their non-conference schedule with a pair of victories during the fifth annual Beauty and the Beast competition. Mizzou opened things up with a 29-9 win over Chattanooga before shutting out SIU-Edwardsville by a 48-0 final to close the day.

Missouri jumped out to a 13-0 lead over the Mocs after the first three matches behind a decision from freshman Alan Waters and a pair of technical falls from sophomore Nathan McCormick and senior Todd Schavrien.

Chattanooga got back in the match with a decision and a win by fall at 149 and 157, respectively, but the Tigers rallied off four straight decisions before junior Dom Bradley's major decision at heavyweight to put things out of reach.

Redshirt freshman Zach Toal and junior Dorian Henderson won their duals by a 5-2 score, while sophomore Mike Larson picked up a 3-2 victory over his opponent. Sophomore Brent Haynes shut out Robert Prigmore, 6-0, and Bradley picked up the major with a 10-2 final. Bradley's second bonus point dual victory of the year closed out the dual, as he took down Matt Lettner four times during the match. A stall warning point in Bradley's favor, along with 1:55 in riding time, added four points to the Missouri team score.

Mizzou followed that win up with a 48-0 thumping of SIU-Edwardsville, the second shutout for the Tigers this season. Missouri beat Lindenwood 41-0 to open the home portion of the schedule back on Nov. 21.

The Tigers opened things up by getting pins in the first three matches. Waters pinned his opponent in 1:36, while McCormick stuck his opponent in 1:53. Schavrien made it 18-0 Tigers with another first period fall, getting the pin 2:13.

The Tigers got a decision at 149 and back-to-back majors at 157 and 165. Henderson kept things rolling with a 6-3 decision at 174, while Larson's bid for a technical fall just short, as he majored his opponent by a 16-2 score. Missouri closed out the match with two more falls, getting pins by Haynes and Bradley at 197 and heavyweight. Haynes took down his opponent and picked up six points in near falls before recording the pin in 2:26, while a takedown by Bradley and strong work on top led him to sticking his opponent in 1:41.

MISSOURI PLACES FIFTH AT NATIONAL DUALS

The Missouri Tigers took fifth place at the 2011 NWCA National Duals after posting a 4-1 record at the tournament.

Mizzou opened up with a 27-9 win over host Northern Iowa, as their first three wins all came with bonus points. Alan Waters opened things up with a pin at 125, while Todd Schavrien scored a technical fall at 141 and Kyle Bradley picked up a major decision at 149, pacing the Tigers to a big margin early on.

The Tigers' next match was against No. 1 Cornell, who edged out Mizzou by a slight 18-15 margin. Missouri jumped out to a 9-0 lead after the first three matches, but the strength of the Big Red's middle weight classes pulled them ahead. Brent Haynes and Dom Bradley won at their respective classes, but the bonus points by Cornell at 174 and 184 was enough to give them the match.

Missouri bounced back with an impressive 29-12 victory over No. 17 Central Michigan in the team's first consolation match. After falling behind 6-3 after the first two matches, Schavrien scored a fall at 141 to put the Tigers up 9-6, a lead they would extend to 19-6 over the next three matches. Back-to-back technical falls by Mike Larson at 184 and Haynes at 197 put the match out of reach for the Chippewas, and guaranteeing the Tigers their first top-eight finish since 2007.

On day two, the Tigers opened up with a 21-12 upset of No. 6 Boise State. Schavrien scored another victory by bonus points to give them an early 7-3 lead. Kyle Bradley and Nick Gregoris battled hard at 149 and 157 with Boise State's grapplers, who are ranked No. 3 and No. 2 in those classes respectively, holding them to wins by decision to keep the Tigers within striking distance. The Broncos led 12-10 heading into the 184 pound match, but the Tigers took the last three matches to claim the dual. Dorian Henderson started things off by wrestling up to 184 and scoring a 19-5 major decision to put Mizzou ahead by a pair. A decision by Haynes put Mizzou up five, leaving Boise State needing a fall at heavyweight over No. 6 Dom Bradley to take the meet. Instead, Bradley picked up a 13-3 major decision, sending the Tigers to the fifth place match.

Paired up against conference rival Oklahoma State, the Tigers pulled off their second straight upset over a top-six team, beating the No. 2 Cowboys by a 21-19 final to claim fifth. Down 12-3, Gregoris pulled off the upset of the weekend for Mizzou, pinning No. 14 Neil Erisman in 2:35 to cut the lead to 12-9. Zach Toal scored a tough decision over No. 16 Dallas Bailey, and a win by default for Dorian Henderson put the Tigers up six. Oklahoma State picked up seven points over the next two matches to take a one point lead into the final match, by Bradley finished off his perfect 4-0 weekend with a 6-1 decision to clinch it for Missouri.

TIGERS WIN MIDLANDS TEAM TITLE

For the first time in program history, the Missouri wrestling team has won the Midlands Championships team title, as the Tigers finished the tournament with 103.5 points to beat out Wisconsin (95.5), Lehigh (93.0) and Iowa (91.0). Missouri wins the Midlands title after finishing third in 2008 and fourth in 2009.

The Tigers entered the day in sixth place but had more wrestlers remaining than any other team in the tournament with eight. Going into the championship session tonight, Missouri had moved up to first place, holding a 13 point edge over second place Wisconsin with five grapplers still alive in the wrestlebacks.

Mizzou ended up placing six wrestlers overall, with freshman Alan Waters leading the way with a third place finish at 125 pounds. Redshirt freshman Zach Toal (165), sophomore Mike Larson (184) and sophomore Brent Haynes (197) each finished fourth. Senior Todd Schavrien took fifth at 141, while junior Patrick Wright took eighth at 174.

WRESTLING FINALIZES 2011-12 CLASS

The University of Missouri wrestling program added three student-athletes to next year's roster, as Trevor Jauch (Crystal Lake, Ill.), Cody Johnston (Warrensburg, Mo.) and Brandon Rice (Washington, Ill.) have signed national letters of intent to continue their wrestling careers at Mizzou.

Jauch, the 87th ranked high school wrestler overall according to Intermat, has put together a three-year record of 120-9 for Crystal Lake Central for coaches Justin Lehr and Jon Murphy. Wrestling at 135 pounds, Jauch ranks seventh nationally in the weight class according to W.I.N. Magazine and ninth according to Intermat. Last season, Jauch won the Illinois state title at 125 pounds to follow up his 2009 state title at 112 pounds.

A three-time state qualifier in Missouri, Johnston is currently 128-15 in his career for Warrensburg High School. Wrestling at 135 pounds his freshman year, Johnston posted a 28-10 record while qualifying for state and earned National High School Coaches Association (NHSCA) All-America honors. At 145 pounds his sophomore year, Johnston was district champion and won 38 of his 41 matches. Last season, Johnston finished third at state and won his second straight district title while posting a record of 46-2. He was an NHSCA Junior Nationals All-American, a Fargo Junior Nationals Greco All-American and finished second at the Super 32 tournament.

Rice was a 2010 Illinois Greco state champion and has a career record of 107-21 through his first three years. A three-year team captain for Washington Community High School, Rice is a two-time Illinois High School Association state qualifier, a two-time regional champion and a two-time conference champion. He was selected to the 2010 Junior Greco Duals All-Tournament Team and a 2009 Fargo Junior Greco All-American.

SCHAVRIEN NAMED WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

Missouri senior 141 pounder Todd Schavrien was named Big 12 Wrestler of the Week, as announced by the league office on Monday, Dec. 20. It is the first weekly honor for the Poway, Calif., native and the first for the Tigers since the 2008-09 season.

Schavrien helped the Tigers to a 2-0 day at the Indiana Duals on Sunday with a pair of bonus point victories, as he defeated Eastern Michigan's Mike Leholm by a 17-0 score and pinned Indiana's Mitchell Rinsey in 4:50.

Schavrien recorded his technical fall win in the first period, as he made quick work of Leholm. He scored a quick takedown early in the match, and rolled Leholm over five times for three-point near falls, scoring the win with 10 seconds left in the first period. Against Rinsey, Schavrien went up 3-0 with a first period takedown and a second period escape. Late in the second, Rinsey attempted a cradle on Schavrien, but he was able to keep Rinsey on his back and record the pin with 10 seconds remaining in the second.

TIGERS EDGED OUT BY PURDUE

The No. 16 Missouri Tigers (6-4) saw their three match winning streak come to an end on Sunday, as they fell to No. 21 Purdue (3-0-1) by a score of 18-15. Missouri held a 12-7 lead after six matches, but the Boilermakers picked up 11 points over the next three matches to take control.

Missouri jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on freshman Alan Waters' 20th win of the season. Waters knocked off No. 30 Camden Eppert by a 6-0 decision, keeping his perfect record intact. The freshman got out to a 3-0 lead after the first period, getting a point when his opponent was called for an illegal lock before scoring a takedown. Waters started down in the second and reversed Eppert, and rode him out in the third for the riding time point.

The Tigers took wins at 141, 149 and 165, however, Purdue was able to take control of the match, getting three straight wins at 174-184-197, including two by bonus points. After a 2-1 decision by Luke Manuel over Dorian Henderson at 174, Purdue's A.J. Kissel, ranked 10th, scored a major at 184, as did No. 7 Logan Brown at 197, to take an 18-12 lead.

Heavyweight Dom Bradley won his 11th match of the year, winning by a 7-3 decision over Roger Vukobratovich, but Purdue would hold on to take the dual, 18-15.

MIZZOU OUTLASTS KENT STATE, 19-15

The No. 16 Missouri Tigers wrestling team (6-3) pulled out a big 19-15 victory over the Kent State Golden Flashes on Sunday afternoon at the Hearnes Center. The Tigers were able to win four of the last five matches on the day to secure the win, the team's third in a row.

Freshman Alan Waters knocked off No. 5 Nic Bedelyon by a 3-1 decision to open the day at 125 pounds. From there, the Tigers got a major decision by 141 pounder Todd Schavrien, and three straight decision from Zach Toal at 165, Dorian Henderson at 174 and Mike Larson at 184. With a one-point lead going into the final match, Mizzou's Dom Bradley, ranked No. 5 in the country, edged out No. 12 Brendan Barlow in overtime. 141

After a slow first period, Bradley started down in the second and immediately escaped. He then took Barlow down 20 seconds later, though Barlow would work an escape before the period ended as Bradley led 3-1 heading to the third. Barlow escaped to start the third, cutting the lead to 3-2.

With under 10 seconds left in the match, Barlow took shot in on a single on Bradley, and as Bradley attempted to escape the hold, he ran out of bounds and was hit for a fleeing-the-mat penalty with just seconds left, tying the match and sending it to sudden death overtime. Bradley kept his composure, though, and scored a takedown just as overtime was about to end, giving him the 5-3 win and securing the 19-15 victory for Mizzou.

SEVEN TIGERS PLACE AT UNI OPEN

The Missouri wrestling team sent nine Tigers to the UNI Open this past weekend in Cedar Falls, Iowa, and seven returned with medals after placing in the top six. Sophomore Brent Haynes captured his third tournament championship of the year at 197 pounds, while sophomore Todd Porter finished second at 174.

Also placing at 174 was junior Patrick Wright, who took third in the class. Wright knocked off Quinn Wilson of Iowa State by a 7-1 score, and then pinned Iowa Central's Christian Mays in 1:56. After dropping his next match, 3-1, Wright rallied off two straight decisions to secure third place.

Also placing for Mizzou was Tyler Perry, who placed fourth at heavyweight, Phillip Perry, who took fourth at 165, Nicholas Hucke, finishing fifth at 149 and Weston Keleher, taking sixth at 184.

TIGERS WIN THREE AT NORTHEAST DUALS

The 16th ranked Mizzou wrestling team (5-3) picked up three wins in four matches at the Journeymen/ASICS Northeast Duals, held in Albany, N.Y. on Saturday. Missouri knocked off American by a 23-15 to open the day, and after a loss to No. 24 Rutgers by a 19-16 score, bounced back to defeat No. 11 Lehigh, 21-10, and Maryland, 18-12. Freshman Alan Waters (125), sophomore Nathan McCormick (133) and senior Todd Schavrien (141) combined to go 12-0 in their matches, helping the Tigers jump out to early leads in each of the duals.

MIZZOU TAKES TWO AT QUAD MEET

The No. 11 Missouri wrestling team opened the home portion of their 2010-11 dual schedule with a quad meet that featured Lindenwood, Hofstra and No. 17 Oregon State. The Tigers finished the day with a 2-1 record, knocking off their first two opponents before dropping their last dual.

Missouri's day got started with their in-state foe, Lindenwood, who ranks as high as No. 8 in the NAIA rankings. The Tigers took care of business, winning 41-0 for the program's first shutout since Mizzou shutout Maryland by a 47-0 score in 2004-05.

The Tigers then took on the Hofstra Pride, who is receiving votes in the latest NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll. The Tigers got several big wins late in the match, winning at 184, 197 and heavyweight to pull out the 19-15 victory.

The last dual of the day pitted the Tigers up against No. 17 Oregon State. The Beavers jumped out big early, winning four of the first six matches and picked up some big wins late to hold off the surging Tigers, as OSU won 19-13.

HAYNES, MELLON WIN AT OPEN

The Missouri wrestling team sent 23 wrestlers to the 2010 Kaufman/Brand Open in Omaha, Neb., on Saturday, and six Tigers returned to Columbia with hardware. Sophomore Brent Haynes and freshman Devin Mellon led the charge, with each claiming first place in their respective classes. Weston Keleher placed second at the 184 elite, Drake Houdashelt took third in 157 amateur, and Johnny Eblen (184 amateur) and Clarence Neely (184 elite) each took sixth.

Haynes swept through the 197 pound elite bracket in dominating fashion, pinning four of his five opponents while scoring a technical fall on the other. His fastest pin came in 1:41, and his 15-0 tech. fall win came in 2:51. In the finals, Haynes pinned Minnesota's Joe Nord in just 2:05.

In the heavyweight amateur bracket, Mellon rallied off four decisions in five matches to claim the title. He opened with wins of 7-3 and 7-4, and after getting credit for a fall due to disqualification, he then beat Kyle Slifka of Iowa State by a 5-3 score before winning the championship by a 3-1 score in sudden victory overtime.

TIGERS TAKE ALL 10 TITLES AT CMU OPEN

The Missouri wrestling team put on an unbelievable show at the annual University of Central Missouri Open, as Mizzou grapplers claimed first place in all 10 weight classes during the all-day event. In total, 21 Tigers earned medals.

Alan Waters (125), Nathan McCormick (133), Cody Farinella (141), Brandon Wiest (149), Drake Houdashelt (157), Nick Gregoris (165), Dorian Henderson (174), Mike Larson (184), Brent Haynes (197) and Dom Bradley (HWT) each took first place in their respective weight classes.

MIZZOU FALLS TO ILLINOIS, 18-13

The No. 11 Missouri Tigers wrestling team dropped their season-opening match to the No. 10 Illinois Fighting Illini by an 18-13 final. The Tigers fell behind 12-3 at the midway point and couldn't overcome the deficit late.

True freshman Alan Waters picked up where he left off last weekend at Lindenwood, as he opened the meet with an 8-3 decision over Logan Arlis to improve his record to 6-0 on the season.

Zach Toal, a redshirt freshman, pulled the Tigers within six with a 10-4 decision over Conrad Polz. Toal scored takedowns in each of the first two periods before going off in the third, as he picked up another pair of takedowns and an escape to go along with his riding time point.

Junior Dorian Henderson secured the only bonus points of the evening, as he took down Tony Dallago four times to go with a nearfall as he coasted to a 13-5 victory.

Fellow junior Dom Bradley closed out the evening with a 3-0 victory over Patrick Walker. After a scoreless first, Bradley escaped in the second after choosing down, and took Walker down 47 seconds into the third period.

THREE TAKE TITLES AT LINDENWOOD

While several Tigers were competing at the annual Black and Gold wrestle-off's on Oct. 30, the rest of the team was getting their first taste of action this season at the Lindenwood Open. Three Mizzou grapplers, freshman Alan Waters, junior Danny Gonsor and sophomore Nick Gregoris took first place in their class, while nine Tigers in all secured medals on the day.

Waters entered the 125 pound class as the No. 2 seed, and coasted through the first two rounds with back-to-back pins, putting Paul Myers (UN-SIUE) on his back in 1:33 and defeating Ben Seglin (WC) in 1:12. After a 4-1 decision and a 6-0 decision to advance to the finals, Waters pinned No. 4 seed Paulie Hansen (MVC) in 1:00 to take the crown.

At 157 pounds, Gonsor was the top-ranked seed in his class and lived up to the hype, as he dominated his five matches on his way to the title. Gonsor, a transfer from the University of Virginia, pinned his first three opponents, taking out Kyle Dooley (UN-ILL) in 4:14, Josh Ballard (MCK) in 1:52 and Josh Mccoy (MMI) in 0:53 to advance to the semifinals. From there, he picked up a 15-0 technical fall victory over No. 4 seed Jake Johnson (LU) to move on to the championship, where he dropped No. 2 seed Jackson Morse (UN-ILL) by a 17-0 score for his second straight technical fall victory, earning him the title.

Nick Gregoris, who entered the tournament unseeded at 165 pounds, took first place with an impressive showing. After pinning his first opponent, Zack Long (MVC) in 1:11, Gregoris then knocked off No. 1 seed Ryan Moyer (UN-LU) by a 5-2 score. From there, he picked up a 12-1 major decision over No. 8 Parker Madl (UN-OU), and defeated No. 4 seed Drae Cox (LU), 7-1, to move on to the finals. Gregoris was crowned champion after pinning fellow Tiger, freshman Phillip Perry, in 1:01.

TIGERS RETURN THREE NCAA QUALIFIERS

The 2010-11 Missouri wrestling team will return three of their six NCAA qualifiers from last season. Senior Todd Schavrien, junior Dorian Henderson and sophomore Brent Haynes each qualified for nationals last year.

Schavrien made his second straight NCAA appearance last year, qualifying at 141 pounds. After dropping his opening match against No. 1 seeded Kyle Dake, Schavrien bounced back with two straight wins before being eliminated by the No. 3 seed from Minnesota, Michael Thorn.

Henderson moved down to 174 pounds last year and earned his second straight bid to nationals, where he went 2-2 with a 3-2 win over Bucknell's Shane Riccio and an 11-3 major decision over conference opponent Ryan Burk from Iowa State.

Haynes qualified for nationals as a redshirt freshman at 197 pounds, and put together three victories before being eliminated. He opened up with an 18-6 major decision over Eric Schuth from Ohio, and bounced back from a tough loss with an 8-2 win over Richard Starks of Army and an 11-0 major decision over Ohio State's Cody Magrum.
