TEMPE - The Arizona State University wrestling team will take part in the 32nd Virginia Duals this weekend as the team heads east to the Hampton Colliseum in Hampton, Va., to take part in the prestigious and historical event set to take place on Friday, Jan. 13 and Saturday, Jan. 14. The Sun Devils look to bring a healthier lineup this weekend as the team will see the return of Nathan Hoffer at 141 pounds and could possibly see Eric Starks retake his place as the team's 174-pounder after nearly two months without seeing the mat while nursing a leg injury. The Sun Devils will looking to improve upon their 5-5 record in duals and are competing in this event for the second consecutive season. The team was eliminated in the consolation quarterfinals by Virginia last season. ASU will begin this year's competition against seventh-seeded Old Dominion at 11 a.m. EST on Friday and will face #20 Rutgers with a win or either Campbell/North Dakota State in the consolation bracket if they fall to ODU.

OPENING WHISTLE

- ASU remains unranked on the season, but did receive votes in this weeks NWCA Coaches Poll
- ASU is 19-14-3 in its history at the Virginia Duals, dating back to 1987
- Levi Cooper leads the team with 18 victories on the season and just two dual losses
- Levi Cooper upset the top-ranked returning NCAA Champion in Zach Rey of Lehigh at the Northeast Duals
- Head Coach Shawn Charles is in his third season as head coach
- Redshirt freshman Shane McGough has logged eight of his 11 victories this year with bonus points (5 falls, 3 majors)
- Eric Starks could return from a leg injury at 174 pounds this weekend
- The Sun Devils return one All-American this season in heavyweight Levi Cooper
- Cooper (HWT) is the only Sun Devil ranked by all of the major ranking services
- Fifteen Sun Devils have experienced their first collegiate action this season, representing the mass majority of competitors thus far.

IN THE RANKINGS - TEAM

The Sun Devils entered the season unranked for the first time since the 2008-09 season. This comes despite finishing sixth at the NCAA Championships last year, though the loss of national champions Anthony Robles and Bubba Jenkins and the very young team the Sun Devils will be fielding are likely to blame for their omittance. The team did not receive any votes in the most recent NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll.

HEAD COACH SHAWN CHARLES

On May 8, 2009, the Sun Devil wrestling program brought back one of its own by hiring Shawn Charles to lead the program that he competed for from 1990-93. An Arizona native and one of the more successful Sun Devils in program history, Charles is just the sixth head coach in the program's 47-year history.

Charles brings a wealth of knowledge to the program following coaching stints as a head coach (Fresno State, 2005-06 & Phoenix College, 1995-96) and as an assistant coach (Missouri, Brown, Nebraska, Central Michigan and Iowa State). During his time on the sidelines, he has worked with 42 individuals that have earned NCAA All-America accolades with five competitors securing individual national titles. Charles was also named the Pac-10 Coach of the year last season after leading the team to a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Championships.

As a student-athlete at ASU, Charles earned All-America honors four times in his career and was a two-time national finalist at 126 pounds. Charles also was a two-time individual Pac-10 Champion and helped his team to three Pac-10 Championships (1990, 1991, 1993) and three Top 6 finishes at the NCAA Championships. In 1993, he graduated from ASU with a B.S. in Computer Information Systems to cap a collegiate career that saw him win 103 career matches and compete in the NWCA East-West All-Star Classic twice.

As an international competitor, Charles claimed 14 titles, including victories in tournaments in Iran, Manitoba, Slovakia, Bulgaria and Turkey while also winning the U.S. Open, the NYAC International and the Pan-American Championships. Along with several U.S. national titles, Charles twice placed second at the World Team Trials and was an alternate on the 1996 U.S. Olympic team.

QUICK FACTS ON CHARLES

- ASU's first 4x NCAA All-American in wrestling (90-93)
- 2x Pac-10 Champion (126 pounds)
- Graduated from ASU in 1993 (BS, Computer Info. Sys.)
- Has coached 40 NCAA All-Americans & 3 champions
- Has helped teams place Top 10 at NCAA's seven times
- 3x Arizona HS State Champion (Tucson Santa Rita)

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Seven opponents on ASU's 2011-12 schedule can be found within the NWCA/ USA Today Coaches Poll that was released earlier this week, top-ranked Oklahoma State, who the Sun Devils are set to face in Stillwater on Jan. 20. ASU is also set to face #12 Oklahoma on that road trip as well. Arizona State fell to #12 Lehigh, #23 Binghamton, #14 Nebraska and #15 Oregon State earlier this season, though they did beat Penn who, while unranked now, was #20 at the time.

IN THE RANKINGS - INDIVIDUAL

Returning All-American Levi Cooper is the only Sun Devil consistently ranked by all of the major ranking services, and did himself a huge favor in upsetting former No. 1 Zach Rey at the Northeast Duals. The victory rocketed Cooper from the mid-teens in most rankings to the top-10 across the board, peaking at No. 4 by The Open Mat. However, his sixth-place finish and injury at the Las Vegas invite hurt him in the polls as he has dropped to No. 10 in the Amateur Wrestling News Rankings and out of the top-10 in all other ranking systems. Cooper hasn't won back-to-back duals since the Reno Tournament of Champions and will have a tough match this weekend with Oregon State's defending Pac-12 champion Clayton Jack. However, he remains a solid top-15 wrestler and has shown he can go with the big dogs at any point.

EVENT HISTORY: VIRGINIA DUALS

Arizona State has competed in the Virginia Duals nine times prior to this year and has placed in the Top 8 five times, including three times as the tournament runner-up, third place once and seventh place once. The Sun Devils went 2-2 in each of their last two Duals appearances (2007, 2004) after taking third in 1997. After placing seventh in 1987, the Sun Devils took second place in 1988, 1989 and 1990 before not placing in 1991 (see the final page of this release for ASU's all-time results at the Virginia Duals). ASU is 19-14-3 all-time in the competition and went 1-2 at last year's competition, which features a double-elimination team bracket. It is the only team head-to-head dual tournament that ASU will take part in this season.

SCOUTING THE COMPETITION: Old Dominion

Old Dominion enters the competition with 5-4 record and this will represent the first ever competition between the two programs. Notable about the matchup will be the 174 weight class that features #17 Te Edwards for the Monarchs. Edwards was a Sun Devil for his first couple years at the intercollegiate level and transferred to ODU during the most recent offseason. Edwards will square off against either Eric Starks or Jacob Graham at the weight class.

A LOOK BACK: Oregon State

Wrestlers from both Arizona State and #15 Oregon State wasted no time giving fans a show at the Pac-12 conference dual last Sunday, combining for six pins and one tech fall in the 10 matches. Oregon State came out victorious, 32-18, but ASU showed some fight with pins from Shane McGough and Jacob Graham as well as wins from Kevin Radford and Tommy Burriel. All four Sun Devils victors were freshmen.

HANGING WITH MR. COOPER

After Levi Cooper's surprise falter in his second match of the season against Eastern Michigan's Wes Schroeder, the redshirt junior ripped off 13 consecutive victories in a streak that included an upset of top-ranked returning champion Zach Rey of Lehigh at the Northeast Duals. The streak came to an end in Las Vegas but Cooper has still established himself as one of the top heavyweights in the nation and will look to return to his All-America status attained last year. Cooper earned his 50th career victory in a decision over #18 Kyle Frey in Las Vegas. Cooper has also placed in all three tournaments the team has competed in this season after his fourth-place run in Reno.

TOUGH MCGOUGH

Shane McGough has began to rise as the most exciting of ASU's young wrestlers this season, winning four of his past six bouts and winning eight of his 12 victories this season with major decisions. Head coach Shawn Charles has praised the redshirt freshman as being that fire that gets people up and cheering on the bench and has gotten the crowd into the home matches this season. McGough has also logged victories over three of his five ranked opponents that he has faced this season, including a beastly pin over #17 Garrett Drucker of Oregon State last weekend.

DON'T MESS WITH THE HOFF

Another Sun Devil on a hot streak is redshirt freshman Nathan Hoffer. After a fourth-place finish at the Eastern Michigan Open to start the season, Hoffer has reeled off victories in all six dual competitions on the season and is the only undefeated dual competitor outside of Cooper. Hoffer went 4-0 at the Northeast Duals and three of his victories so far this season have come by pin.

PRETTY RAD, DUDE

Kevin Radford began making a case for being the top freshman on the team with an early-season upset of #18 Max Thomusseit before staying competitive with top-ranked Robert Hamlin. His consolation quarterfinal appearance at the Las Vegas Invitational showed his ability to bounce back from an early loss and Radford followed that up by posting a 4-2 record at the Reno Tournament of Champions that saw him defeat No. 20 Matt Ryan of West Virginia and top-ranked NJCAA competitor Austin Morehead of Clackamas. Radford gave #12 Boaz Beard all he could handle against Iowa State before taking the decision over Oregon State's John Tuck and has been one of the team's most consistent performers on the season.

JACOB'S LADDER

Injuries are part of the game when it comes to wrestling and everyone has to be ready to go in case a teammate goes down. That was the case for true freshman Jacob Graham as he has had to fill for returning NCAA Competitor Eric Starks at 174 pounds for the past couple weeks. Graham, the only true freshman to compete for ASU so far this season, was solid in his collegiate debut, going 2-2 in a run that including the team's fastest pin of the season in 43 seconds against Shawn Seppalla of Western Wyoming in Graham's first collegiate bout. Graham went on to put #5 Nick Heflin on his back in a losing but spirited effort and showed another gutsy effort against Oregon State's Ty Vinson, pinning the Beaver with about 10 seconds left despite trailing the bout by four points at the time.

FILLING THE GAP

Injuries are a part of wrestling and the key to a good team is the ability for others to step up when a starter goes down. Like Graham, redshirt freshman Kyle McIntosh has been asked to fill such a hole at the 149 weight class and has performed admirably in the circumstances. McIntosh scored an exciting come-from-behind victory against Boise State's Steven Hernandez for his first career victory and used his flair for the dramatic for another third period victory against Iowa State's Lucas Swalla the other night.

FINDING HIS HOME

Levi Cooper's early career was not an easy one. The redshirt junior out of Hubbard, Ore., started as a freshman at Portland State in 2008, compiling an 11-15 record before the program was discontinued at the conclusion of the year. Cooper would go on to compete at CSU Bakersfield the following year but found himself transferring to Arizona State after redshirting his year with the Roadrunners. As a sophomore last year, Cooper burst onto the scene to the tune of an eighth-place All-America finish at last year NCAA Championships and is the Sun Devils' lone returning All-American and one of just nine upperclassmen on the roster as he gets set to compete in a second year for a program for the first time in his career.

YOUNG GUNS

A look at ASU's probably starters heading into the season gives one every indication they need as to why the Sun Devils didn't receive much love in the preseason rankings. Thus far this year, 14 different student-athletes have made their Division I debuts. Between injuries and just having a young team across the board, many of the wrestlers are getting thrown in the fire and having to prove themselves right off the bat. Several have answered the call, a promising sign, as the team will need the youth to step up heading into the meat of the season.

DON'T COUNT THEM OUT

Just because there is tons of youth on the 2011-12 roster doesn't mean there is any shortage of talent. The redshirt freshmen all had a year to learn and grow under the likes of the now-departed Anthony Robles and Bubba Jenkins and saw just what it takes to be a top-10 caliber team. Six of the eight redshirt freshmen won at least one state title while in high school and the two that didn't (Tommy Burriel and Hans Rasmusson) were both runners-up at their respective state championships. De Jesus was the two-time junior college national champion at 149 pounds. The freshmen on the team have compiled a 70-86 record on the year, led by double digit victories from Nathan Hoffer, Shane McGough, Tommy Burriel and Kevin Radford.

NEW FACES

Mention has already been made of the eight redshirt freshman who could be starters this year, but that's just the start of how young the Sun Devil roster is this year. Of 31 student-athletes, just nine are upperclassmen and only four are seniors. There are a total of 11 redshirt freshmen on the team and 10 true freshmen, making up two-thirds of the ASU roster. The brand new faces on this year's team include: Kory DeBerry (Tucson, Ariz.), Jake Gentzler (Andover, Kan.), Jacob Graham (Phoenix, Ariz.), Rush Hall (Hoover, Ala.), Mat Malnoske (Anchorage, Alaska), Preston McCalmon (Lafayette, Ga.), Lucio Murillo (Tucson, Ariz.), Kevin Radford (Fayetteville, N.C.), Alex Schmersahl (Centralia, Mo.) and Blake Stauffer (Neosho, Mo.).

SENIOR SEASONS

Four individuals on the roster are entering their final seasons in the Maroon and Gold. The list includes 2011 NCAA participants Eric Starks and Jake Meredith (2011 Pac-10 Champion) as well as Arizona-native Kyle DeBerry. David Prado,

ARIZONA STATE

W R E S T L I N G

Roster / Notes

who should find a role as a starter at 125 pounds this year is also set to graduate.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

In the history of the program, 29 different families have supplied the Sun Devils with multiple wrestlers, including a pair of brothers this year and a second-generation Sun Devil. Brothers Kyle and Kory DeBerry are the 27th set of brothers to be members of the Arizona State program with Kory joining his senior brother after winning four consecutive state titles at Sunnyside High School in Tucson, a feat Kyle accomplished at the same school just five years earlier.

COACHING ADDITIONS

The 2011-12 season will see the addition of two additional coaches with Travis Pascoe joining the staff as an assistant coach, replacing Ben Askren, while recently-graduated national champion Anthony Robles will be a part of the team in a volunteer coach role while he continues his post-collegiate career of motivational speaking. Pascoe had served as a volunteer coach at Oregon State for the past five seasons and will bring a wealth of knowledge to the team's heavyweights, having been an All-American and hour-time NCAA qualifier during his collegiate years at Nebraska.

ALUMNI UPDATE

• UFC 139 was a success for former Sun Devils with Dan "Hendo" Henderson winning the main event with a unanimous decision over Mauricio "Shogun" Rua while Ryan Bader earned a solid victory in the undercard against Jason Brilz. • Cain Velasquez was unable to defend his UFC heavyweight title against up-and-coming Junior Do Santos, falling by TKO in the first round.

• Aaron "A-Train" Simpson won his bout against Eric Schafer in UFC 136 just under a month ago while Clifford Starks won his UFC debut on Oct. 29 against Dustin Jacoby. Both wins were by unanimous decision.
