ERVIN'S RUN AT AN UNDEFEATED SEASON COMES TO AN END AS ASU SPLITS IN CHATTANOOGA

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. -- Appalachian State University sophomore Scott Ervin saw his run at an undefeated season come to an end in ASU wrestling's split matches versus Chattanooga and University of the Cumberland on Saturday evening at UTC's MacLellan Gym.

Ervin, a 157-pounder from Weatherford, Okla., brought a perfect 20-0 mark into his match against Chattanooga's Jake Yost but fell, 6-3. The Mountaineers didn't fare much better as a team, as they dropped to 1-3 in Southern Conference action with a 29-4 loss to league-power UTC (13-7-1, 2-0 SoCon).

Despite the loss to the Mocs, Appalachian managed to stay above .500 overall on the season with a 26-22 victory over the University of the Cumberland (6-3). The triumph was more convincing than the final score would indicate, as ASU forfeited three matches, including two after the outcome was decided.

With the split, the Mountaineers moved to 8-7-1 on the season.

Things don't get any easier for Appalachian as it closes SoCon action on Thursday in Charleston, S.C. versus another perennial conference power, The Citadel. The Mountaineers and the Bulldogs hit the mat at 7:30 p.m. in McAlister Fieldhouse.
