2006-07 Buena Vista University wrestling outlook

Buena Vista University returns 13 letter winners and three national qualifiers in 2006-07. The Beavers return all but one major contributor from last year's squad that posted a 14-10 dual record and placed 21st at the NCAA Division III National Championship.

Two-time All-American junior Jestin Hulegaard headlines the list of returnees. He took third place at the national meet in the 133 pound weight class. Hulegaard concluded the year with a record of 27-7.

Senior Ben Standberg is beginning his first full season at Buena Vista. He transferred in from the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Standberg placed third at the Iowa Conference Championship and went on to qualify for the national meet at 197.

Sophomore Kyle Forness will be moving up to 157 after qualifying for nationals last year at 149. He finished the year with a record of 24-16 even though he was forced to forfeit six victories at the beginning of the season for cutting weight too quickly.

Wade Hammen will join the team for his senior year once the football season concludes. At heavyweight last year, he recorded a team-high 13 pins.

At the other end of the spectrum, Ryan Pratt returns at 125. He saw most of the varsity action last year as a freshman.

Besides Forness at 149, Buena Vista struggled at times in the middle weight classes a year ago. The good news is, all of those wrestlers return and have a year of experience underneath their belts.

Dana Vote will drop down to 149 after wrestling at 157 for much of his sophomore year. He was 17-14 overall with 11 falls.

Sophomores Kody Koster and Tyler Winkleman will continue to battle for the varsity spot at 165. Junior Josh Murray is the most experienced returnee at 174. Sophomore Brian Stueve, who went 26-20 last year, returns at 184.

Other returning letterwinners include Julian Gunnels (sophomore, 125), Aaron Cook (sophomore, 157), and Austin Hayes (sophomore, 184).

Third-year head coach Mark Schwab has also brought in 14 freshmen to join the mix of talented returnees.

“We are excited because this recruiting class has a lot of past success and future potential,” said Schwab. “The big question will be making the adjustment to college wrestling and balancing academics. If they are able to prioritize, set goals, back it with behavior and belief, then they could set a very high bar.”

Buena Vista will start the year on November 10 with a dual against Iowa State University.
