ACC Co-Wrestlers of the Week

John Barone, Duke & Hudson Taylor, Maryland

Duke's John Barone and Maryland's Hudson Taylor have been selected Atlantic Coast Conference Co-Wrestler of the Week for their respective performances at dual meets over the weekend. For each, this week's honor is the first of the 2007 wrestling season.

At the Hoosier Duals in Bloomington, Ind., over the weekend, Barone was a perfect 5-0 in the 184-pound weight class. In his first two matches against wrestlers from Oregon and Ohio, the redshirt sophomore from Shirley, N.Y. registered two easy wins, one coming by major decision and the other by fall. In his third match, Barone recorded his biggest win of the week, defeating Indiana's Marc Bennett, ranked No. 8 in the nation, by a 12-6 decision. Barone would go on to win his last two matches, against wrestlers from the University of the Cumberland and from Liberty, with two early pins. He is now 15-1 this season and 50-16 for his career.

Taylor, a redshirt sophomore from Pennington, N.J., was victorious in three matches over the weekend at the Journeyman/BRUTE Northeast Duals in Troy, N.Y. In his first and perhaps biggest win of the season, the 197-pounder pinned Anthony Biondo of No. 5 Michigan as the Terrapins completed a come-from-behind 18-16 upset of the Wolverines. He then pinned an opponent from Appalachian State in his second match, as the Terps were again victorious, and recorded his third pin of the week against a wrestler from No. 9 Central Michigan in his final contest of the meet. Seven of Taylor's nine wins this year have come by way of fall.

Barone and the Blue Devils will next be in action this Saturday, Dec. 1, at the Davidson open in Davidson, N.C. Taylor and the Terps will host Lehigh in College Park, Md., this Sunday, Dec. 2, at 2:00 p.m.
