Gold Tops Black in Final Tuneup

BOONE, N.C. — Senior Lee Roper recorded a pin just 2:21 into the first period of a 165-pound match to help lead his Gold squad to a 21-18 victory over the Black team in Appalachian State University's annual Black and Gold scrimmage on Tuesday night at Varsity Gym.

Roper's pinfall over junior Ken Kepley was just part of a back-and-forth affair that went down to the final match of the evening.

In addition to Roper's pin, victories by freshman Shad Rissler, sophomore Scott Ervin and freshman Antonio Rojo helped the Gold overcome an early deficit to even the score at 18-18 heading into the final match. Junior heavyweight David Hazell secured the Gold victory with a 5-1 decision over sophomore Jared Campbell in the scrimmage's finale.

Junior Terreyl Williams joined Roper as the only Mountaineers to record pinfalls on the evening, as he put away senior Tim Goodwin with 39 seconds to go in the second period to give the Black six points in the 133-pound weight class. Freshman Nick Lukacs and sophomores Marcus Cox, Aaron Barnett and Rocky Richey also earned victories for the Black.

Appalachian opens the regular season on Sunday, Nov. 13 when it hosts the Mat Jam Duals at the Holmes Center. Chattanooga and VMI will join ASU in representing the Southern Conference at the season-opening event, with Duke and North Carolina carrying the banner for the Atlantic Coast Conference.
