

2004-05 NJCAA College Preview

By Dan Fickel
National Editor

The 2005 National Junior College Wrestling Tournament will be hosted by the Rochester Amateur Sports Commission on February 25-26 in Rochester, Minnesota. The Tournament Director is Ed Hruska and the NJCAA Representative is Gary Huber.

Northwest Wyoming College, coached by Jim Zeigler, is the defending Division I (scholarship) champion. The Trappers are led by NCAA runner-up Seth Wright (125), All-American Kade Caturia (165), and former high school state champions Thomas Huntington (133), C.J. Rathjen (149), Chase Walker (157), Craig Maurello (174), Shawn Vincent (184), and Spencer Bowles (285).

The defending Division III (non-scholarship) champion is Nassau Community College. Head Coach Paul Schmidt's Lions are highlighted by All-Americans John Cummings (157) and Jon Andriac (285) and premier transfer students Pat Flynn (133) and Chris Parris (184).