2005 California Wrestling Hall of Fame Inductees: Two Olympic athletes head the 2005 list of Hall of Fame Inductees. Stephen Abas and Eric Guerrero have many things in common when it comes to their wrestling careers. They were both three-time California CIF state wrestling champions, wrestling for high schools in the Bay Area, they were both three-time NCAA Division I wrestling champions, and both were members of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Freestyle Wrestling Team. These two individuals along with Armand Brett, Dale Deffner, Dennis Diliddo, T.J. Kerr, Bently Lyon, Duane Morgan, and Doc Peterson will be inducted. Buck

Deadrick and Jay Robinson will also be inducted. They were selected to be inducted in 2004 but could not attend the banquet.

In addition, seven individuals will be given the Lifetime Achievement Award. Those individuals include Irv Olinder, Kirby Page, Roy Spomer, Paul Connor, Sam Boyd, Dr. Floyd "Doc" Buchanan and the late Rene Errotabere

The banquet will be held on Saturday, May 14th at the Picadelli Inn-University, Fresno, CA. For additional information, contact Dennis Bardsley (559-299-2176).
