Appalachian State to Host Indiana in NWCA Dual Championship Series

BOONE, N.C. — Appalachian State University wrestling will host Indiana on Feb. 19 at 3 p.m. in Varsity Gym as part of the 2017 NWCA Division I Dual Championship Series presented by The United States Marine Corps and Theraworx, the National Wrestling Coaches Association announced on Monday.

Fans can now purchase tickets online at appstatesports.com/tickets. Tickets cost $10 for adults and $5 for students and youth. A reminder to Appalachian State wrestling season ticket owners that this special event is not included your 2016-17 package. All tickets will be general admission.

The first 150 students who show their student ID at the door will be allowed to enter the event free of charge.

Parking for the event will be available in Rivers Street Parking Deck and Peacock Lot. Parking will be free of charge and available on a first-come-first-serve basis.

All matches a part of the 2017 NWCA Division I Dual Championship Series will be streamed live on TrackWrestling. The link for Appalachian State's match against the Hoosiers will be accessible on the appstatesports.com's MatchDay Central page when available.

The Mountaineers earned the ability to host the NWCA Division I Dual Championship Series by winning the Southern Conference regular season championship during a historic year. App State finished with a perfect 7-0 conference record and a 13-2 overall record. The championship is Appalachian's second-straight and ninth overall.

Last year, the Black and Gold traveled to Indiana for the NWCA Division I Dual Championship Series and came away with a 21-13 victory. The Mountaineers won the final three matches of the day to get the come-from-behind win over the Hoosiers.
