TEMPE, Ariz. – Before No. 6 Arizona State Wrestling starts the 2018-19 regular season next weekend, the Sun Devils hosted their annual Maroon & Gold Intrasquad, this year at Wells Fargo Arena. Despite some significant victories for the maroon team, the gold team came away with a decisive victory, 32-18.

Josh Kramer, who moved up to 133 lbs and Austyn Harris (197) kicked off the match with back-to-back decisions before Ryan Millhof (125) added a tech fall to give the gold team an early 11-0 lead.

Of note, transfer Josiah Kline won both his matches by fall in the second period to give the maroon team 12 of their 18 points. Brady Daniel (HWT) and freshman Jacori Teemer (149) also earned decisions to account for the remainder of the maroon team's points.
