CENTRAL MISSOURI (1-2, 0-0 MIAA)

OUACHITA BAPTIST (0-0)

NOV. 29, 2017 - 7 P.M.

SPRINGDALE, ARK.
BER HIGH SCHOOL

Mat Points
• Central Missouri Mules Wrestling will take on the Ouachita Baptist Tigers in a mid-week dual to close out the month of November on Wednesday, the 29th. Mat action gets started at 7 p.m.

• The Mules and Tigers will battle in a neutral site dual at the Ber High School in Springdale, Ark. This will be the eighth all-time meeting between the two schools.

• UCM has competed in three duals and two tournaments this season. In mid-November the Mules were at the Show-Me-State Duals with Missouri, Truman State, and Missouri Valley. They went 1-2 against the competition and sit at that mark early in the 2017-18 season.

• The Mules two tournaments were at the Baker Open and the Lindenwood Open. At the Baker Open, nine Mules were placewinners, including a champion in Kaleb Warner at 157 pounds. At the Lindenwood Open, UCM had two placewinners in Kaleb Brooks (6th, 157) and Zach Benner (6th, 197).

• UCM has two tournaments left in the calendar year in the Luther Hill Invitational on Dec. 2, and the Midwest Classic on Dec. 16 and 17.

• The Mules will open up the New Year on Jan. 6 when they travel to Mankato, Minnesota for the Maverick Duals.

Series History
Central Missouri vs. Ouachita Baptist: 1-6-0
The Mules and Tigers are set to take each other on for just the eighth time overall. Last year in Warrensburg, UCM led Ouachita Baptist 21-12, but the tigers put together a furious comeback that helped them walk away with 24-21 win.

Scouting The Competition

Ouachita Baptist

- The Tigers enter this weekend having competed in three tournaments so far this season in teh Oklahoma City University Open, the Maryville Open, and the Lindenwood Open.

- Ouachita Baptist has had wrestlers compete in all but two weight classes in 141 pounds and 174 pounds. Leading the way early on is Tyler Mann at 165 pounds, with an overall record of 9-4 through three tournaments. At the Lindenwood Open, he went 4-2 to capture a fifth place finish. Mann also placed third at both the OCU Open and in the Elite Division of the Maryville Open.

- Three other wrestlers have seen mat time early in the season with records just under .400 going into Wednesday’s dual. Tyson Hume is 4-6 at 125 pounds for the Tigers and was a fifth place finisher at the Maryville Open in the Elite Division. Sean Butler is 3-4 at 157 pounds. Jerhett Lee is 4-6 at 285 pounds this season. He earned a fifth place finish in the Elite Division at the Maryville Open.

- Following the dual with UCM, Ouachita Baptist will host the Hatcher Invite on Dec. 2 before closing out the calendar year at the Newman Jet Invite and Midwest Classic on Dec. 10 and Dec. 16-17, respectively.

Was Ranked:
Oct. 28, 2015- 19th (D2Wrestling.com)
The 2017-18 season is Justin Ensign’s eighth season as the head coach of the Central Missouri Mules Wrestling squad.

Ensign has coached nine national qualifiers, five of which have earned All-American status, in seven seasons. He has a 34-65 dual record, with a .343 winning percentage and is 7-27 against MIAA opponents.

Ensign and the Mules went 5-10 overall in duals and 1-4 in MIAA competition in 2016-17. In seven regular season tournaments, the Mules had 21 total placewinners, with six champions. At the MIAA Championships, Jesse Reser grabbed All-MIAA status placing second at 165 pounds, while John Feeney placed fourth at 133 pounds. At regionals, Cody Carson finished fourth at 174 pounds to punch his ticket to nationals, while Reser placed fifth at 165 pounds and Bradley Irwin was sixth at 141 pounds. At Division II National Championships, Carson finished fifth at 174 pounds earning All-American status for the Mules and became the fifth All-American under Ensign.

The 2015-16 season was a challenging one for Ensign and the Mules Wrestling program. UCM tied a program low dual wins in a season as they went 2-9 overall, finished sixth at the MIAA Championships, and placed 13th at regionals.

The 2014-15 season was a recording breaking one for Ensign and the Mules Wrestling program. The team tied their highest finish at the national tournament with an 11th place finish. Frank Cagnina defended his NCAA Division II National Title at 149 pounds, and Archie Williams earned All-American status by finishing fifth at nationals at 174 pounds. Williams was the MIAA champion at 174 pounds, and De’Quence Goodman finished third at 285 pounds at the MIAA Championships. The Mules finished 5-12 in duals.

In 2013-14 the Mules went 6-6 during the regular season and 2-4 in the MIAA, with a lot of post season success. Cagnina won the first national title since the 2005-06 season. Cagnina and Ty Loethen are also the first All-American honorees under Ensign. The two combined for 27.5 team points at the NCAA II Championships, and placed first in MIAA competition in 2016-17. In seven regular season tournaments, the Mules had 21 total placewinners, with six champions. At the MIAA Championships, Jesse Reser grabbed All-MIAA status placing second at 165 pounds, while John Feeney placed fourth at 133 pounds. At regionals, Cody Carson finished fourth at 174 pounds to punch his ticket to nationals, while Reser placed fifth at 165 pounds and Bradley Irwin was sixth at 141 pounds. At Division II National Championships, Carson finished fifth at 174 pounds earning All-American status for the Mules and became the fifth All-American under Ensign.

Prior to being named the eighth bench boss in Central Missouri history, Ensign spent two years as a graduate assistant coach under legendary Mules Wrestling coach Robin Erslan, who left UCM for the head coaching position at Minot State (N.D.) following the 2009-2010 season. During the two years Ensign was a graduate assistant under Ersland, the Mules compiled a 14-16 dual record, while finishing in the top 25 at the NCAA National Championships both seasons (18th in 2009, 22nd in 2010). Ensign also helped guide the Mules to five individual All-American performances.

Ensign also spent one season as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Wagner College, in Staten Island, N.Y. As an assistant coach during the 2007-08 season, he helped the Seahawks finish fourth at the Virginia duals. Ensign also had two NCAA-I East Region third place winners.

Before starting his coaching career, Ensign spent four years on the mat for Wagner. He was named team MVP two times and spent two seasons ranked in the top five in the CAA. He was also a two-year team captain, and two-time Iron Man award winner. Ensign was a four-year starter, twice at both 141 and 149 pounds. The Cherry Hill, N.J. native earned his bachelor’s degree in Childhood Education and Sociology in 2007, and earned his master’s in Sports Management from Central Missouri in spring, 2011.

The 2017-18 season was a challenging one for Ensign and the Mules Wrestling program. UCM tied a program low dual wins in a season as they went 2-9 overall, finished sixth at the MIAA Championships, and placed 13th at regionals.

The 2014-15 season was a recording breaking one for Ensign and the Mules Wrestling program. The team tied their highest finish at the national tournament with an 11th place finish. Frank Cagnina defended his NCAA Division II National Title at 149 pounds, and Archie Williams earned All-American status by finishing fifth at nationals at 174 pounds. Williams was the MIAA champion at 174 pounds, and De’Quence Goodman finished third at 285 pounds at the MIAA Championships. The Mules finished 5-12 in duals.

In 2013-14 the Mules went 6-6 during the regular season and 2-4 in the MIAA, with a lot of post season success. Cagnina won the first national title since the 2005-06 season. Cagnina and Ty Loethen are also the first All-American honorees under Ensign. The two combined for 27.5 team points at the NCAA II Championships, and placed first in MIAA competition in 2016-17.
