Henneman Named NAIA National Wrestler of the Week

Nick Henneman (Oregon, Ohio/Clay H.S.) of Lourdes University has been named the NAIA National Wrestler of the Week, the first national award for a Gray Wolf grappler.

Henneman, ranked 10th nationally at 141 pounds, scored his fifth pin of the season last Wednesday evening, helping the Gray Wolves to a 29-17 upset of second-ranked Indiana Tech. The redshirt-freshman defeated the Warriors' fifth-ranked Gaige Torres on the fall with 10 seconds remaining in the second period, giving Lourdes a 17-0 lead at the time.

Henneman remains undefeated in dual matches on the season at 5-0, and posts a 9-2 record overall for the Gray Wolves.

Lourdes (8-9) closes out the dual portion of its 2018-2019 schedule on Wednesday evening as the Gray Wolves travel to Grand Rapids, Mich. to face Davenport. The opening bout is slated for 7 p.m. inside the DU Student Center.
