Red, White and Labriola Place At Medal Rounds

Pittsburgh, Pa. – Chad Red Jr. (141), Isaiah White (165) and Mikey Labriola (174) took eighth, fifth and sixth place, respectively, during Session V's medal rounds this afternoon. With one session to go, the Huskers are in 9th place with 52 points.

Red Jr. Takes 8th Place in Second Nationals Appearance:

#16 Chad Red Jr. competed in the seventh-place match today and dropped an 11-3 major decision to Lock Haven's #13 Kyle Shoop. Red Jr. went 4-3 on the weekend as he took All-America honors for the second consecutive season.

The sophomore from Indianapolis, Ind., finishes his second season as a starter with a 22-14 overall record and 16 bonus-point victories. He was second amongst all starters with six victories by pinfall.

White Grabs Fifth Place:

#7 Isaiah White fell in a back-and-forth decision to #4 Evan Wick of Wisconsin in the consolation finals. He led 2-1 heading into the final period, plus he had the riding time point locked in. However, an illegal hands to the face penalty on White and a late takedown by Wick turned out to be the difference, as the Wisconsin sophomore grinded out a 4-3 decision.

The junior from Chicago, Ill., responded in the best way he could in a dominating 8-3 victory over Arizona State's #3 Josh Shields. The victory clinched a fifth-place finish for White as he celebrated his first All-America honor. He finishes the season with a 25-9 overall record and won a team-best 13 matches against ranked opponents.

Labriola Finishes Sixth in First NCAA Championships Appearance:

Redshirt freshman #10 Mikey Labriola fell in both the consolation semifinals and the fifth-place match during Session V this afternoon. Labriola was defeated by Michigan's #5 Myles Amine in his first match via decision, 5-3. He led 3-2 late in the fifth-place match against #6 David McFadden (Virginia Tech), but a McFadden reversal with three seconds left gave him the 4-3 win.

The Easton, Pa., native finishes his first season as a starter at NU with a 30-9 record. He led all Huskers starters with 69 dual takedowns and eight major decisions. Labriola tied Husker-great Robert Kokesh (2011-15) for eighth-place on the NU single-season wins list for freshmen (30). Labriola joins elite company as only Kokesh and four-time All-American James Green (2011-15) have won 30 matches as a freshman since the 21st century began.

Up Next:

Session VI begins at 7 p.m. EST (6 p.m. CT) and will consist of all 10 national championship bouts. All championship matches will be on one mat, starting at 285 pounds and finishing at 197. Tyler Berger's match at 157 pounds is expected to begin around 8 p.m. EST (6 p.m. CT).
