The No. 2 Ohio State University wrestling team will split its time between Bloomington, Ind., and St. John Arena this weekend with a road dual at Indiana on Friday (Jan. 11) at 7 p.m. ET before hosting Michigan State Sunday (Jan. 13) afternoon at 2 p.m. ET. Both B1G duals to be streamed on BTN Plus.

MATCH NOTES

HISTORY WITH THE HOOSIERS

Ohio State owns a 49-34-2 edge in the all-time series, including the last nine in a row. The Buckeyes have won 17 of 19 clashes since 1997. Friday night will be a farewell of sorts as the Hoosiers open a new venue, Wilkinson Hall, two days later versus Maryland. Indiana is hosting Friday's dual inside University Gym.

HISTORY WITH THE SPARTANS

Sunday marks the 70th all-time meeting between the Buckeyes and Michigan State. The Spartans own a 40-29-1 advantage all-time, but it is a series dominated by the Scarlet & Gray since the turn of the century. Ohio State has won 13 of 14 tussles since 2000, including the nine most recent. The last time MSU walked out of St. John Arena as a victor was 1997.
