OCU announces update to fall sports schedule

OKLAHOMA CITY – Oklahoma City University has elected to delay the start of its 2020-21 season for fall and winter sports.

Oklahoma City has postponed competition in volleyball, men's and women's basketball, cross country, soccer and wrestling until the spring 2021 semester.

The NAIA and the Sooner Athletic Conference announced in August the move of the fall sports national and league championships to the spring.

"We are disappointed for our fall and winter sport student-athletes who will not get the opportunity to compete this fall, yet we remain optimistic they will be able to participate in conference and national championships this spring," OCU athletic director Jim Abbott said. "These are gut-wrenching decisions for all involved, but the safety, health and well-being of our students and staff must remain our top priority. We are blessed to have outstanding coaches who are committed to developing our student-athletes not only as players, but also as people, and I'm confident we will be ready and prepared this spring." The Stars will continue to compete in golf this fall.
