Penn and Princeton Weekend

We face off against Penn tonight at 6:30 and Princeton tomorrow at 1:00. If you can't make it to the Friedman Wrestling Center you can always watch the action live at: http://www.espn.com/watch/\_id/a1b5adae-7960-4801-b2c7-6666cdacbe4b/pennsylvania-vs-cornell. ESPN plus costs $4.99 per month.

I would normally write up a preview of this weekend's matches but our SID did a nice job for me so here it is: <https://cornellbigred.com/news/2019/2/5/ivy-title-on-line-when-wrestling-hosts-penn-19-princeton.aspx>

Senior Night

I do want to put a special plug out to ask everyone to come out for our Senior Day. We will be gunning for our 17th consecutive Ivy League title. Also I omitted Seniors Joey Galasso and Derek Krajewski in my last email. Not sure how that happened but pretty typical of me!

Cornell Wrestling Appeal

Anyone looking for Cornell wrestling gear look no further. This store will only be open through Monday in order to assure all orders are delivered in time for the NCAA tournament. To order go to: <https://cornellwrestling19.itemorder.com/>

Hall of Distinguished Wrestling Alumni

Please join us in honoring John Cvetic as our newest member to our HDWA. We will be honoring John at halftime at the Ohio State match on February 22. A reception with light hors d'oeuvres will be held from 5-6 in the Kaplan Lounge, which located on the upper floor of Bartels Hall.

John Cvetic, Class of 1986, is the CFO and Treasurer of the Industrial Manufacturing Company.

IMC, with headquarters in Brecksville Ohio, is a family of companies that produce a variety of innovative products in a variety of industries. They provide precision gears and machining services for use in the transportation, agricultural, industrial and marine markets. Their aerospace division provides ducting systems and design consulting in the Americas, Europe and Asia.

IMC's Lubrication Division provides an array of pumps, controllers and specialty lubrication products and their metal fabrication business and serves a variety of industries.

With more than 3,500 employees and over 34 worldwide manufacturing, sales and distribution facilities, they provide products and services to some of the most demanding industries imaginable.

Johnny C, as his Coach Andy Noel and his mates lovingly referred to him, came to Cornell from Lakewood Ohio's St. Edward High School. He was an Ohio State Champion, wrestled for the legendary Howard Ferguson... who was also his uncle. John is a member of the St. Ed's Hall of Fame and he along with his teammate Pat Welch, paved the way to Cornell for many future St. Ed's graduates.

At Cornell he helped lead the team to the 1984 Ivy Championship and was named All-Ivy that year.

John and his wife Laurie, who is member of Cornell's Class of '85, live in Avon and they have _ children.

Congratulations to John Cvetic '86 for his induction into Cornell's Hall of Distinguished Wrestling Hall of Fame.
