

Here are some updates on our alumni and our current wrestlers. May have left some things out, but I will get them out next time. In June we should have a final list of Academic All American from this year's team.

Tyler Diamond (SCC 2010 – All American – North Dakota State Grad) He continues on The Ultimate Fighter every Wednesday at 7 PM on Fox Sports1. He gave a shout out to Sacramento City College and other SCC MMA fighters who have helped him along the way to this point. Check out his interview here: <http://mmajunkie.com/2018/04/meet-ultimate-fighter-27-cast-tyler-diamond-ufc-tuf-video>

Juan Archuleta (2007-State Champ – Purdue Grad) Juan is going to have his second fight in the Bellator MMA promotion. He won his first fight recently for Bellator and will fight on June 29 in Temecula.

Kaleio Romero (2015-3rd State) will have his 2nd Professional fight this Friday, May 11 at the McClellan Conference Center in Sacramento. Tickets can still be purchased for this event.

Sion King (SCC 2000 – 2X All American – Adams State Grad) Coaches in Texas now at Prosper HS. His team won the state wrestling dual championship and finished 2nd in the individual championship, just 8 points out of first place. It is the best finish in school history. Sion was in just his first year coaching at Prosper. Congrats to Sion and his team.

We also look out for our stats ladies. Hannah Trabucco (2014 – also a member of the SCC Softball team) will be graduating in May from Evangel University (MO). She continued softball while there as well. Congrats Hannah.

Louis Demas (SCC – 1984 – Academic All American) His son Dominick just won the USA Junior Freestyle National Championships in Las Vegas. Dom also took second in the Junior Greco Roman Nationals the same week. That is an awesome double for anyone. Needless to say, Louis is very proud. In an earlier email, it was noted that Dom was a red-shirt freshman at the University of Oklahoma this past year and will begin his college competition in the winter of 2018-19. Here is his win for a HS State Championship: <https://www.flowrestling.org/video/5768628-dirty-demas-headlock-for-state-title-in-ohio>
