September 16, 2021

Cliff Keen Athletic announced today that it has entered into an NIL marketing deal with Tokyo Olympic Bronze Medalist and current University of Michigan Wrestler, Myles Amine.

Amine, a 4-time NCAA All American, joins team Cliff Keen after an amazing year on the mats. After claiming third at this year's NCAA tournament, Myles traveled to Japan to compete for San Marino in the Summer Games. Amine showed incredible resiliency, earning himself a Bronze medal--The first medalist in San Marino's wrestling history, and the first ever Freestyle medalist in UM Wrestling history. Myles is also a Big Ten Conference Distinguished Scholar, Academic All-Big Ten, and a CoSIDA Academic All-American.

"We are extremely excited to have Myles on Team Cliff Keen! He is a warrior plain and simple. He works hard on and off the mat and is a great role model for other wrestlers. His recent accomplishment as an Olympic medalist is tremendous, but only scratches the surface. We are very proud of Myles, and I have always been impressed with his character and dedication to academics as well. We are excited to watch him continue to pursue his goals and we will always be in his corner." said Tom Keen, President of Cliff Keen Athletic.

Myles will exercise his final year of eligibility at Michigan, and will continue to train in Freestyle with the Cliff Keen Wrestling Club. He will be a prominent fixture in Cliff Keen's brand marketing and advertising to the Wrestling market. "I am beyond excited to announce my partnership with Cliff Keen Athletic," said Amine. "This one is extra special to me because I grew up wearing Cliff Keen apparel and have a tremendous amount of respect for the brand and what it stands for."

A long-time supporter of Amateur Wrestling of all disciplines, Cliff Keen Athletic is the World's leader in Wrestling uniforms, equipment, and training apparel.
