Macaluso Takes Sixth Place at 123 in Program-Record Third NCWWC All-America Season

3/9/2024 | Women's Wrestling

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa - No. 7 Mia Macaluso completed her storied career as an East Stroudsburg University women's wrestler, taking sixth place at 123 at the NCWWC National Championships at the Allegiant Energy PowerHouse on Saturday.

ESU tied for 12th place among 49 teams, earning 33.5 team points.

Macaluso started her day win a pin in 33 seconds over No. 6 Victoria Seal, before falling to No. 1 Shelby Moore (McKendree) by a tight 8-3 decision. She fell to Sacred Heart's No. 5 Alexandra Fitzgerald by pin in the fifth-place match in her final match

ESU had eight representatives at the NCWWC National Championships, with Olivia Klein (101), Emily Klein (116) and Zoe Gress (130) just a win away from becoming NCWWC All-Americans on Friday night. For the day one recap, click here.

Macaluso is the only Warrior to earn NCWWC All-America status twice and is now the first three-time honoree at ESU. Along with taking sixth-place at 123 on Saturday, she earned third place at 123 in 2023 and fourth place at 130 in 2022.

Tatyana Ortiz (4th place, 109, 2020), Avia Bibeau (5th place, 143, 2022), Sofia Macaluso (6th place, 123, 2023), Emily Klein (6th place, 116, 2023) and Zoe Gress (7th place, 143, 2023) join Mia Macaluso as NCWWC All-Americans in program history.

Macaluso completes her collegiate career with a program-best 68-19 record.
