Voorhees Captures 157 Pound Title at CMU Open

Grand Junction, CO. (Nov. 14, 2021) – A total of nine Cowboys were in action on Saturday as they competed at the Colorado Mesa Open in Grand Junction, Colorado. All nine grapplers competed unattached and seven Pokes finished the day as place winners.

After winning the Mines Rookie Open at 165 pounds last weekend, Cooper Voorhees followed it up by winning the 157-pound title at the CMU Open. Voorhees got started fast picking up a pin in just 36 second in his first bout. From there Voorhees would outscore his next three opponents 30-8 on his way to winning the title. Voorhees is now 8-0 on the season.

True Freshman Bryce Dauphin also had a strong day in the 157-pound bracket, bouncing back from a semi-final loss to finish third on the day with a 4-1 record.

True Freshman Aiden Noonan was the only other Cowboy to make the finals, competing at 141 pounds. Noonan picked up a pin in the quarterfinals before defeating Wayland Baptist's Moses Torres 10-0 in the semifinals. Noonan would come up short in the finals against Martin Wilkie (MSUN) finishing the day with silver.

Hayden Lieb and Kevin Anderson both put together strong showings at 165 pounds. Both wrestlers bounced back from quarterfinal losses by winning three straight matches to set up a third-place bout against each other. Lieb edged out Anderson, 8-4 in the Cowboy vs Cowboy matchup.

The Cowboys season will officially start on Nov. 27th as the pokes will host the Cowboy Open in Laramie, Wyoming.
